

Unit on Human Rights and the Cambodian Genocide

Grade levels: 7- 8, adaptable to grades 9-12 with proper modifications

Author: Kathryn Maley (Northern Illinois University, Summer 2006)

Unit Profile

Lesson 1: What are Human Rights?

Lesson 2: What are Human Rights ? continued

Lesson 3: Human Rights Violations: Information Gathering

Lesson 4: A Factual Introduction to the Cambodian Genocide: What Happened?

Lesson 5: The Face of Genocide: Primary Sources

Lesson 6: How Does Genocide Happen? Insight into the Pol Pot Regime

Lesson 7: Effects of Genocide, The True Cost of Inhumanity

Lesson 8: Never Again?

Lesson 9: Responsible Citizenship and Taking Action

Lesson 10: Unit Wrap Up

Marker commemorating the last victims at Tuol Sleng.
(Bruce Sharp)

Photo from NIU SEASite picture database
<http://www.seasite.niu.edu/>

UNIT DISCLAIMER

This unit on the Cambodian Genocide has been compiled using a variety of sources including, but not limited to: the Internet, academic works, oral history compilations, maps, the U.S. Census Bureau, and other varied sources. The sources used have been cited in every instance however copyright permission has not been obtained from individual sites, authors, or institutions. Anyone wishing to use this unit on Human Rights and the Cambodian Genocide in any way, shape, or form must obtain copyright permission from the appropriate entities before doing so.